

Mother Daughter Fashion Show last party of season for Denver Ballet Guild

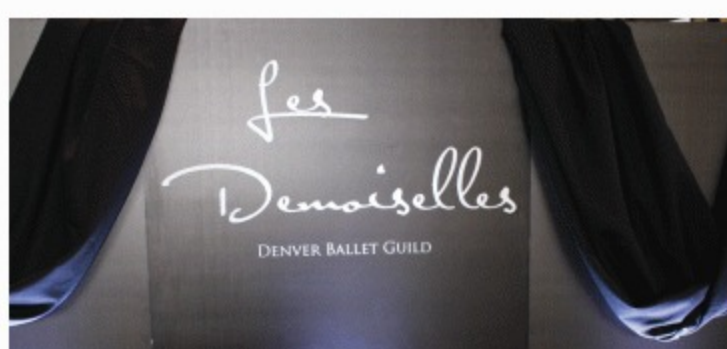

on: May 08, 2019 In: Benefit/Charity, Fleurish

Print Email

Hear no evil, Speak no evil, See no evil – Gavin McGee, Erin Cromwell and Patrick Groters

BY SCOTTIE TAYLOR IVERSON
COMMUNITY EDITOR

Denver Ballet Guild presented its traditional “sending off of the senior girls” from its Les Demoiselles program at landmark Cableland, former residence of Bill Daniels and official residence of the Mayor of Denver. Encore Catering & Culinary Services created outstanding hors d’oeuvres stations while proud moms settled in to watch their soon-to-graduate daughters on the runway escorted by members of University of Denver’s Swim and Dive Team. Annalee Reavis is a senior at Cherry Creek High School and will be off to CU Boulder. Louisa Wingert is a senior at Ralston Valley High School who has chosen Miami of Ohio. Erin Cromwell is also from Ralston Valley High School and will attend the University of Kansas. Swim and Dive Team escorts were Blayze Jessen, Harrison Fudge, Gavin McGee and Patrick Groters. Active arts patron Julie Sachs was chair of the event. MAX provided the chic casual and dressy casual clothing.

All the models in their own formal attire: Blayze Jessen, Annalee Reavis, Harrison Fudge, Louisa Wingert, Gavin McGee, Erin Cromwell, Patrick Groters

Katrina Benes, chair Julie Sachs and JoAnn Cole